The main content area features a banner with the Science4Refugees logo (three interlocking circles in blue, green, and red) and the text: "Welcome refugee researchers and students looking for a suitable job!". Below this, a list of bullet points includes: "Jobs and opportunities all over Europe", "Free and easy access to the Science4Refugees initiative", "Be part of the European Research Community", and "Information on working and living in Europe".

Below the banner, the text reads: "Our mission: help you get started in Europe". This is followed by a paragraph: "The Science4Refugees initiative and EURAXESS portal provide research refugee friendly internships, part-time and full-time jobs, access to an European Research Community, as well as a complete range of information and support services on working and living in Europe."

At the bottom, there are three icons with corresponding text: a magnifying glass for "Search for refugee friendly jobs", a group of people for "Register to join the community", and a document for "Post CV for best opportunities". Below these are two yellow buttons: "SEARCH JOB OFFERS" and "POST YOUR CV".

Research in Austria

Austria plays an active part of the European Research Area. To further strengthen Austria's position as a knowledge society and to foster innovation, investments in research and development have been increased in recent years, working towards the goal of becoming one of Europe's most innovative countries.

To achieve this goal Austria also strives to provide favorable conditions and adequate support for researchers. With its active research landscape, a dynamic and innovative economy and a high quality of life, Austria is also an attractive destination for international researchers and their families.
